PUBLIC ACCESS TO VIDEO CONFERENCE HEARINGS

During the term of the Emergency Orders issued by the Texas Supreme Court, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, most, or all, hearings in the 81st and 218th District Courts will be held by video conference. Notice of video conference hearing will be posted at <https://81-218.txcourts.gov/dockets.php>. Participants will be notified of how to participate.

In compliance with the open courts provision of the Texas Constitution, video conference hearings are open to the public. While as with any proceeding in court, the public may not participate, the video and audio will be livestreamed on the YouTube channel of the judge presiding over the hearing, shown below, and may be viewed on any internet capable device able to access YouTube. Those needing special accommodations for public access may contact the Court Coordinator at coordinator@81-218.txcourts.gov, or at the telephone number and address below.
